Notes: Red wax seal of John Philip, archbishop of Mainz and bishop of Worms, on the support, covered by a piece of paper cut in the shape of a cross superimposed over a flower. The arms of the cross are folded and not clearly visible. A note giving the date and a brief description of the content is pinned to f.2v. Some words from a different text appear on the dorse of this note, including the date 27 November but no year. f.2v also has a second note on content, a Union Theological Seminary library stamp, and the call number "MS 37/34" in pencil in a modern hand. Text 1: f. 1r-v

Title: Provision of a benefice

Language(s): Latin

Incipit: John Philip, archbishop of Mainz and bishop of Worms, informs the dean and chapter of St. Martin's in Worms that he has given a canonate and prebend at St. Martin's to John Peter Engels of Cologne.

Notes: The paper placed over the seal obscures several words of the dating clause. The second to last line reads "Mensis May Anno Millesimo Sexcentesimo Sexagesimo." The predecessor of John Peter Engels was Nicolas Dome.
